WALKING ON AIR

The sublime skies of Baroque frescoes and Dutch master paintings inspired German rug designer Jan Kuhl's Heiter Blü Walkig ("earthly sunny") Collection, made from hand-spun Tibetan wool and Chinese silk. A detail of Cloud I is shown in the window; the more elaborate Ferrara Cloud Special Rückrad is on the floor. $8' x 10' $18,880 for Cloud I, $39,440 for Ferrara Cloud Special Rückrad; custom sizes available. www.kuhl.com

1 / EXPANDING HORIZONS

Toronto-based designer Colleen McGill's Bryson desk, part of her Plum Furniture line, pairs a brass-plated base with an extendable top covered in black Italian leather. 60" w. x 29" d. x 29.5" h., 680" w. when extended, $13,400; custom sizes, metal finishes, and leathers available. myplumdesign.com

2 / ON THE GRID

The 190-year-old French porcelain house Deshoullières brings a playful twist to Limoges china with its Graphique tableware, featuring punchy colors set against a gold lattice. From top: 6.5" bread plate, $55; 11" dinner plate, $105; and 9.5" dessert plate, $95. biucordonbleu.com

3 / BALANCE OF POWER

Made of marble and covered with a veneer of semiprecious stones, such as malachite, shown, the Cone table by Global Views features a cantilevered top that seems to float weightlessly. 29.5" w. x 18" d. x 22.5" h., $12,500; other stones available. shopcandelabra.com

5 / LEAN IN

English designer Tom Faulkner combines techniques both traditional and cutting-edge in his Berlin chair, pairing a hand-stitched oak-bark-tanned leather seat, shown in Chestnut, with a water-cut steel frame. 25" w. x 21" d. x 32" h., $4,500; other leather colors and metal finishes available. tomfaulkner.co.uk
